
Mission and impact-driven:

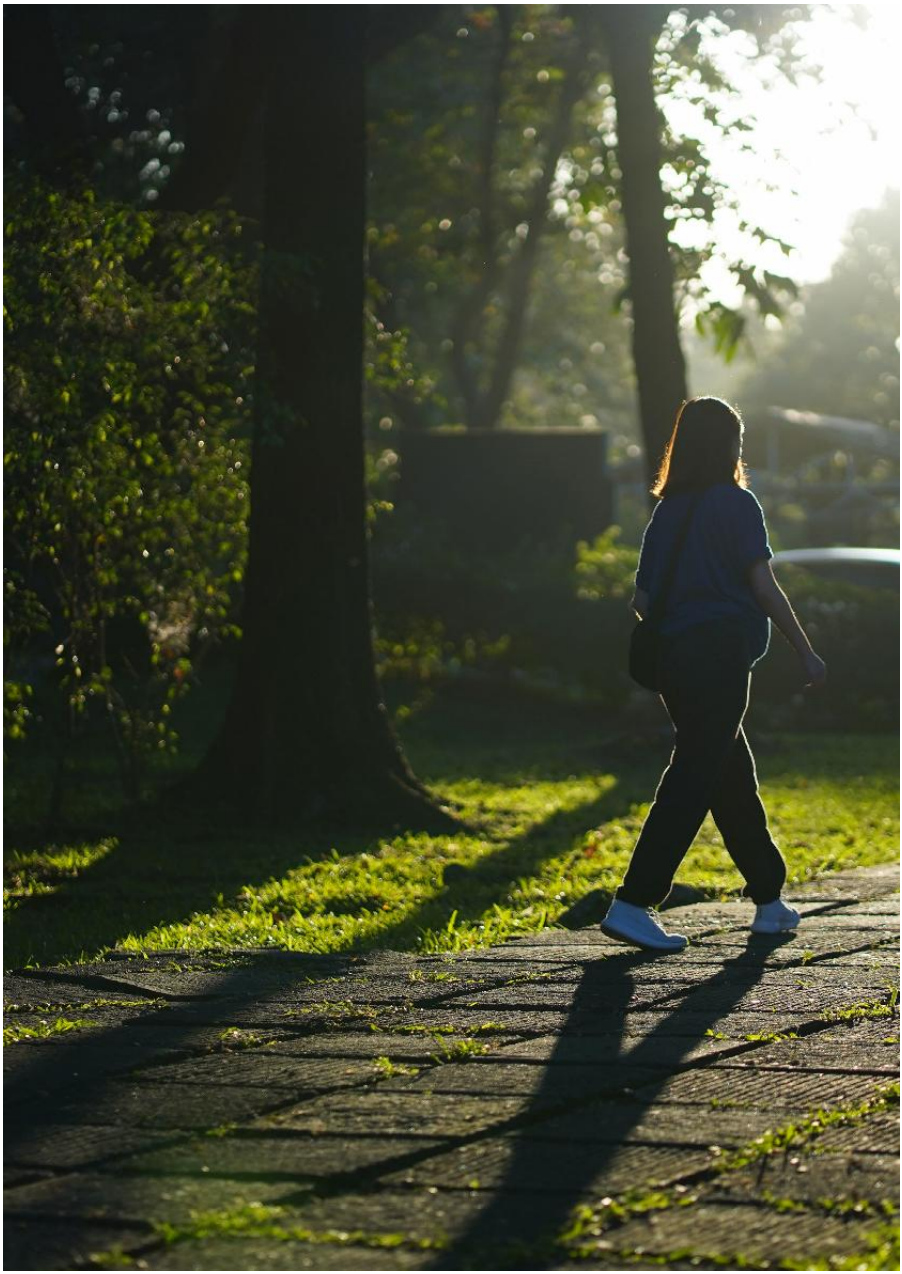
Research and

Creative Work

at the Ateneo



1

Message of the

Vice President for

Higher Education

Ateneo de Manila University prides itself on

• The School of Medicine and Public Health is at being a bedrock of liberal arts education that the forefront of looking into the issues of public seeks to cultivate in the students the core values health vis-à-vis universal healthcare management of competence, conscience, compassion, and and administration.

commitment to the common good. These same

• The School of Law is engaged in human rights values are upheld by scholars that engage in issues and the role of Philippine jurisprudence in research and creative work and pursue innovation matters related to these.

in their different fields of specialization.

• The Ateneo Graduate School of Business In Ateneo's Higher Education, each school – with specializes in business case studies that address its research centers – showcases expertise that management issues in the particular context also serves as a gateway for interdisciplinary of fostering societal values and business and collaboration among different departments.

economic and social responsibility.

• The Ateneo School of Government focuses on

• The School of Humanities houses the creatives research that has an impact on policy reforms that showcase the richness of Philippine cultural and innovative solutions that strengthen tradition and put us in the limelight for timely key democratic institutions like elections, and relevant theater/musical performances, political parties, legislature, bureaucracy, and cinema and multi-media productions, as well as accountability institutions.

bag literary awards in national and international competitions.

In this vibrant community of scholars, warm

• The John Gokongwei School of Management relationships foster the crossing of disciplinary engages in research that ties up social borders and allow for the congenial sharing of entrepreneurship and business ventures geared expertise and resources. The university facilitates

Mission and impact-driven:

towards not just profit generation but also ethical the production of knowledge through research leadership.

and creative work grants as well as sandbox

• The School of Science and Engineering pioneers spaces for the development of innovative ideas.

in research on current and emerging technologies The university also provides incentives for the that respond to societal needs (like the COVID-19 proper dissemination of ideas through open-pandemic), disaster risk and mitigation, and access grants, and conference presentations science, mathematics, and engineering education. support; ArchiumAteneo also serves as a

• The School of Social Sciences, using a repository of information regarding any scholarly problem-solving framework, engages in activity produced by faculty members and research that investigates social issues from research centers; the availability of Ateneo Rese the perspective of economics, political science, journals and the University Press also inspires ar psychology, sociology-anthropology, history, and publications.

ch and Cr

development studies.

• The Gokongwei Brothers School of Education Where more heightened support and and Learning Design looks into curricular appreciation are accorded for scholarships with e reforms, digital education, educational leadership great impact on the common good, there is no ative and policies as well as new teaching-learning better time than now for research, creative work, W modalities.

and innovation to flourish in Ateneo Higher ork a

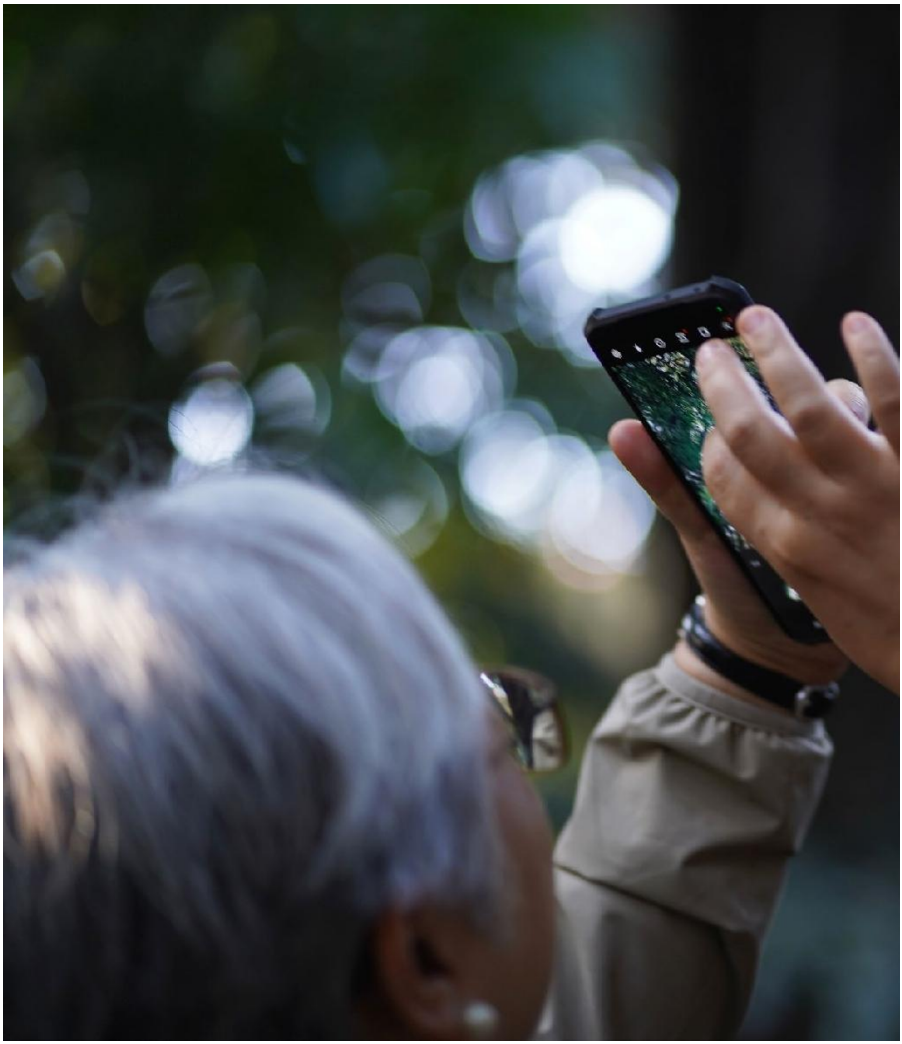
Education.

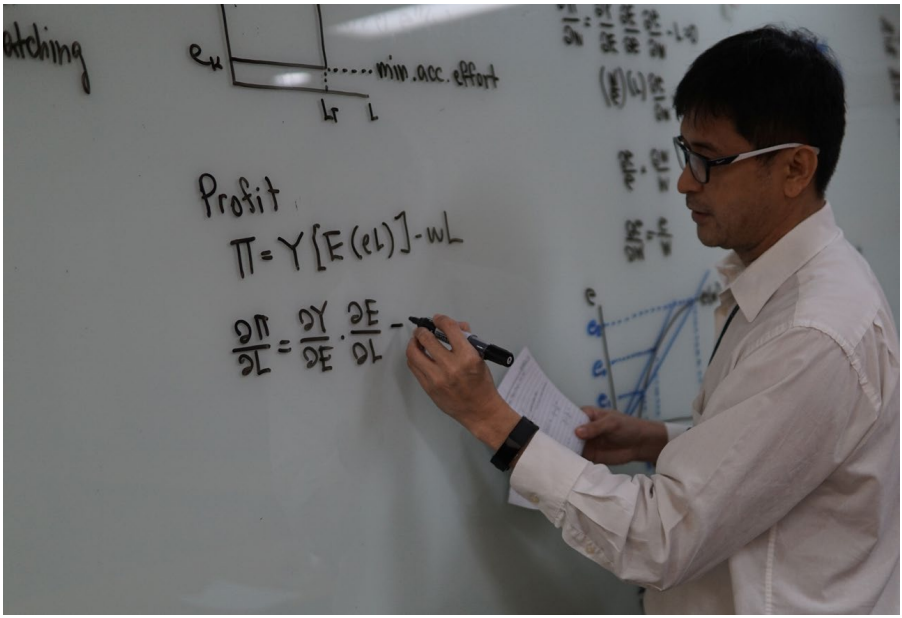
t the

Ateneo

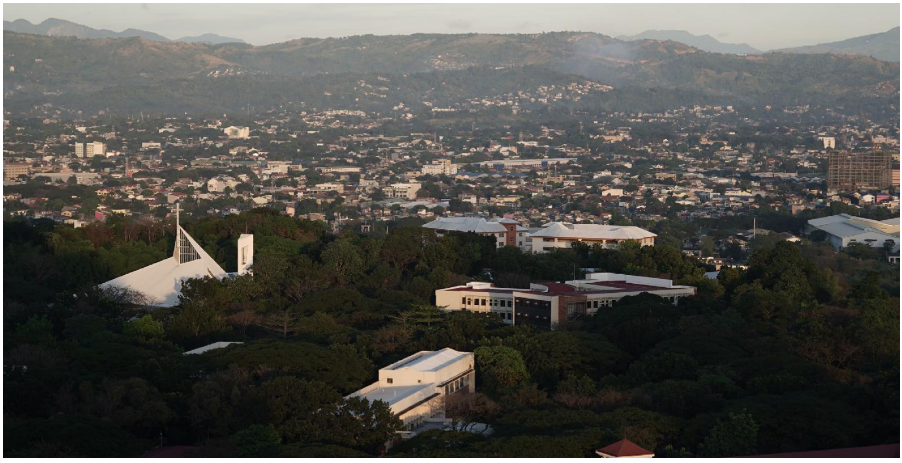
MARIA LUZ C. VILCHES, PHD

Vice President for Higher Education





min. acc. effort
Profit



2

Strategic

3

Priority Areas

Ateneo de Manila University seeks to be a force for good in seeking innovative and sustainable solutions to society's most pressing challenges.

Mission and impact-driven:

Ateneo's research and creative work are anchored in the university's four Strategic Research and Creative Work at the Ateneo Priority Areas set out by the Lux In Domino Strategic Plan for 2021-2030.

Ateneo's contribution to the advancement of human knowledge through

Education Reform and

Integral Ecology

innovation, inquiry, and insight is in line with the current challenges Transformation

and demands of the Philippine economy, culture, and society, set in an Recognition as a Laudato Si' university for exemplary leadership in the promotion of emerging and transforming global context.

Innovative education for all, leveraging human creativity and technology integral human development

Within and outside its walls, Ateneo de Manila Ateneo de Manila seeks to lead in innovative, aims to lead the way in sustainable and leading-edge teaching and learning that is integral human development. Caring for our open, inclusive, values-based, and responsive common home and the welfare of all creation to the needs of a fast-changing world.

is at the heart of all the university's endeavors.

Mission and impact-driven:

Ateneo

t the

Rooted in its identity as a Filipino, Catholic, debuted as the top Philippine higher education ork a

Universal Health

Bridging

W

and Jesuit university, Ateneo's research and institution in the Times Higher Education (THE) creative work seeks to make real-world impact World Rankings for 2023. Its highest score was in and Well-Being

Cultural Divides

ative

that enriches and transforms lives. For more citations, placing 60th globally, which attests to e than 160 years, the Ateneo has continually the institution's "role in spreading new knowledge Efficient, accessible, affordable and equitable Committed collective action to solve 'wicked R nurtured excellence and innovation by fostering and ideas," and "how much each university is healthcare in the Philippines through effective problems' by transcending cultural differences ese a collaborative and supportive environment for contributing to the sum of human knowledge."

public health leadership across social, economic, political, and other ar ch and Cr

scholars, researchers, and artists. The university is divides

ch and Cr

ar

home to several leading scientists and artists, and Driven by its vision to be a "force for good," the The nation's public health system calls for ese many other faculty members recognized in their Ateneo ranked as the top Philippine institution innovative leadership that addresses emerging Reconciliation and healing in society will only R respective fields who mentor and collaborate with in the 2022 THE Impact Rankings, based on threats and builds on our collective experience begin once people recognize that there is a young and promising scholars.

their research output, outreach, teaching, and e with healthcare challenges and opportunities.

diversity of ideas and experiences. Ateneo ative stewardship programs related to the United It is a kind of leadership Ateneo de Manila de Manila can be a platform that brings With its 30 research and innovation centers based Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

can foster within its community, marked by together people for civil, open, and respectful W in nine schools, the Ateneo is ready to engage Ateneo led Philippine universities in the SDGs of ork a inclusivity, care, and compassion.

dialogues, allowing them to better understand with partner institutions locally and internationally Clean Water and Sanitation (SDG 6), Sustainable each other, overcome differences, and act in seeking innovative and sustainable solutions to Cities and Communities (SDG 11), Peace, Justice, t the together for a better world.

society's most pressing challenges.

and Strong Institutions (SDG 16), and Partnership Ateneo for the Goals (SDG 17).

Ateneo's reputation as a leader in research and Mission and impact-driven:

creative work has been recognized. The university 4

EDUCATION REFORM AND TRANSFORMATION

5

Making education accessible through technology CARLOS OPPUS has taught at

as EduCloud, became even learn mathematical concepts the Ateneo for more than three more relevant during the early and skills in blended and online decades as a faculty member of part of the COVID-19 pandemic learning settings.

the Department of Electronics, when remote learning was Computer, and Communications implemented.

Costing only PHP 10,000

Engineering (ECCE) since 1989.

(roughly USD 180), EduCloud

He finds teaching and research

“During the pandemic, we saw can hold one terabyte of data.

as truly rewarding, especially that many students had no

While they donated the first few when he sees his students means to connect to or pay for units to the community that they succeed in their chosen fields.

internet connectivity. So we first served, AIC also capacitates thought–and this was when I its partner-communities to build

EDUCATION REFORM AND TRANSFORMATION

Oppus, who is trained in physics joined the team–why not make and maintain their own low-cost and computer engineering, is a server that we could deploy

EduCloud systems.

also the former director of the in schools so teachers and Ateneo Innovation Center (AIC), students can download modules Oppus says the project would Understanding education systems, which aims to bring innovative and other educational resources not be possible if not for research done in laboratories on any device with wifi even if the resources and funding enabling teachers and learners to reality, contributing to they're offline," Oppus recalls.

provided by the Ateneo's community and society.

University Research Council,

EOS TRINIDAD, instructor in the What he found was that specific Qualitative, Quantitative, and

Through this system, learners as well as additional support

Department of Interdisciplinary factors such as school climate,

Humanities Research which

His own practice in the field and teachers can also access from the School of Science

Studies, believes that "education structural forces, and particular won the National Book Awards of electronics and computer educational videos, software, and Engineering and his home is Ateneo de Manila University's sectors are important predictors for Best Book on Professions in engineering extends his positive and even Wikipedia offline. department.

strength, and that of all Jesuit in education. For instance, 2019, and Error-Proofing Your contribution to education to Students can likewise upload institutions in general." For Trinidad notes how a good Research: Common Mistakes communities well beyond the their assignments to the server,
"As ECCE, this is our him, leveraging this strength number of schools in rural areas and How to Address Them.
Ateneo campus.
and teachers can download contribution to bridging a gap. can bring about the possibility do not have enough teachers these submissions as well. The It makes education accessible for societal, economic, and compared to those in urban These two books specifically Oppus and his AIC colleagues team partnered with Ateneo's even to those without access," democratic advancement. areas. Understanding these draw on Philippine examples adapted the "near cloud" Department of Mathematics to Oppus says.

Mission and impact-driven:
specific facets and their sources and experiences in discussing technology that archives digital include their Mathplus apps in It is for this reason that Trinidad, could help policymakers and research and have become files into a server for schools the EduCloud server. Funded by To know more about EduCloud Ateneo who received his Joint PhD in authorities make the necessary required reading in several in remote communities to the Department of Science and and near-tech cloud technology, Sociology and Comparative interventions and investments to colleges and high schools. “We access even without an internet

Technology (DOST), the apps visit resiliencetoolkit.ph/near-

t the

Human Development at improve the quality of education.

need a body of knowledge that connection. The system, dubbed are designed to help students cloud-tech .

ork a

the University of Chicago, is responsive to our realities,”

W

pursued education policy and “What we’ve done as Trinidad insists.

organizations as his research researchers is to provide more eative interest. “Education for me is a capacity, more ways of looking Trinidad attributes his passion R

concrete way by which we can through this type of data and for the education sector to
ese bring a more just world and I it’s data that can enrich the Ateneo’s supportive scholarly
ar
feel I can concretely contribute discussion,” Trinidad explains. environment.
ch and Cr
ch and Crar
there with the skills I have as well,” he says.
For Trinidad, however, he “It’s that intellectual and Rese

believes that his biggest personal support that's been e
More recently, he examined contribution in terms of very helpful in my trajectory
ative
data from the Philippines' scholarship is in motivating as a researcher. You can't get participation in the Programme and inspiring teachers and that community anywhere else.
W
ork a
for International Student students to do good research.
It's a smart community but it's Assessment (PISA). This study He has delivered dozens of also a caring community," he
t the
involved a survey of 15-year-old seminars and talks on research, concludes.

students and factors associated and has authored two books

Ateneo

with their achievement.

on the topic: Researching

Get in touch with Trinidad at

Mission and impact-driven:

Philippine Realities: A Guide to jtrinidad@ateneo.edu.

INTEGRAL ECOLOGY

7

Empowering resilient

Mainstreaming

communities through environmental sustainable technologies sustainability through systems-based thinking

The Philippines is among

Even beyond a disaster's the world's most vulnerable aftermath, the technology can countries to the climate crisis. To also be used as alternative water address this threat, researcher and power sources, and even as

PAUL CABACUNGAN and an alternative source of income.

his colleagues at the Ateneo

Partner-communities earn as

Innovation Center (AIC) much as PHP 30,000 (roughly have developed sustainable

USD 530) per month for selling technologies that seek to the treated water.

empower their partner communities. Cabacungan

Another technology that

CHARLOTTE KENDRA

as challenges become more replicated elsewhere given food received his MS Electronics

AIC deploys to vulnerable

GOTANGCO GONZALES

complex. “I think there is also waste’s implications for food

Engineering from the Ateneo de communities is hydroponic earned her doctoral degree room for people who can think security. Another project they Manila University.

farming, which can serve as in Earth and Atmospheric across specializations, across are developing with students an alternative and nutritious

Sciences from Purdue University disciplines and across sectors is accounting Ateneo's carbon

AIC's research projects have food source while providing in 2011. She is an associate to see how they can connect, footprint, which Gotangco contributed to community sustainable livelihood. Each professor at the Department and how we might leverage

Gonzales hopes to serve as a resilience, health, and well-harvest nets as much as of Environmental Science (ES), those connections to come model for other institutions.

being by exploring viable

PHP 8,100 (roughly USD 145) and the current director of the up with new perspectives or alternatives that respond to a for partner communities. The Ateneo Institute of Sustainability paradigms and ways to address One of the biggest challenges partner community's needs, hydroponic system, which is (AIS). AIS serves as Ateneo's hub more complex socio-ecological in her field, however, is creating and teaching them how to installed in roofs, also acts as an for sustainable development, problems," she goes on to say.

dynamic models specific to the build, use, and maintain these urban heat shield.

engaged in research,

needs of their stakeholders. "We technologies. "Our approach environmental education,

The goal, Gotangco Gonzales are building these ourselves

Mission and impact-driven:

Ateneo

of teaching communities allows

"I want to help survivors get and raising awareness of says, is for "sustainable and we are looking at the data poor partner communities to back on their feet after a environmental issues.

alternatives to become the

that are available to us to help

t the

access inexpensive, state-of-disaster by having alternative mainstream, not the alternative.”

understand the system as much the-art devices, and gives them sources of power and drinking

Gotangco Gonzales is also as possible, because most of

ork aW

more environment-friendly water and provide livelihood part of the Ateneo Human-

Some of AIS’s research might be the time these models are not a options,” Cabacungan explains.

options through protective

Environment Dynamics

specific to Ateneo, but they have one-size-fits-all; they need to be ative and precision agriculture,” research group under the ES yielded important insights that adapted and contextualized to

e

Among the many innovative

Cabacungan discloses.

Department and the School can also be applied externally.

their specific situation.”

research projects Cabacungan of Science and Engineering.

One example is applying

R

and the AIC team developed is Cabacungan attributes the

She specializes in the study of system dynamics modeling and

From her experience, creativity

ese

ch and Cr

the solar-powered Clean Water wide range of projects his team complex interactions between material flow analysis of rice and critical thinking are both

ar

ar

Systems, which harvest, filter, generates to the diverse and natural systems and human waste in the Ateneo campus.

key in the process of innovation.
ch and Cr
ese
and purify rainwater for safe supportive scholarly community activity. Their research group, The study, done in collaboration Ateneo has provided her with a R drinking in disaster-stricken and research infrastructure in she explains, “employs systems with Abigail Favis, assistant space that fosters both, as well communities. More than Ateneo. “Through Ateneo’s thinking and industrial ecology professor in the ES Department, as the necessary connections to
e 150 units have already been efforts to support research techniques to look at topics that produced new insights on make their work truly enabling

ative

installed across the country.

projects, I have been given the intersect the natural sciences food waste. “Most people and engaging in view of today’s

W

This system has been recently opportunity to work with experts and the social sciences.”

think the waste is downstream challenges.

ork a

deployed in several areas in the field and with inspiring but we have discovered that severely affected by typhoons in mentors.”

While specialization is there are upstream sources of

To know more about the Ateneo

t the

2022 such as Capiz, Cebu, and important in addressing climate that waste," she says, such as

Institute of Sustainability's

Southern Leyte.

To know about the Ateneo change, she believes that surplus of cooked rice in the research, visit ateneo.edu/ais/

Ateneo

Innovation Center's work, visit they would eventually require cafeteria. Gotangco Gonzales research.

Mission and impact-driven:

ateneoinnovation.org .

a "big picture" perspective hopes that their research will be 8

UNIVERSAL HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

UNIVERSAL HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

9

Contextualizing

Building mental health resilience autism detection for through community-led interventions Filipino children

REGINA HECHANOVA

The Katatagan program was first is among the leading tested on students affected by psychologists in the Philippines

Haiyan, which proved to be a today. Her research is invested success. “It helped them adjust in public mental health, and kept them sane, reduced which focuses on those who the suicide ideation, kept them are distressed but may not from thinking about harming necessarily need clinical themselves,” she reveals.

intervention. A professor in the

Ateneo De Manila’s Department

There are only 500 psychiatrists of Psychology, she was named for more than 100 million among the Outstanding Young Filipinos. With the country’s

ANGEL DY is a medical doctor Alongside data gathering that by doing research work, Scientists of the Philippines in meager resources for who specializes in autism and which seeks to inform policy, by profiling and understanding 2005 by the National Academy mental health, Hechanova's neurodevelopmental disorders.
Dy's research has also been what autism looks like in the of Science and Technology. intervention attempts to shift Given that research on autism effective in community work Philippines, what support they the paradigm of mental health in the Philippines is largely and capacity building efforts for need— then we can actually plan
"Only a certain percentage, practices towards empowering limited, much of Dy's research researchers interested in autism. interventions for them," she says.

maybe less than 15% of people, communities to provide was carried out with the aim of

Aside from their work on autism, really need clinical therapy. A evidence-based interventions

creating a larger pool of data on they also conduct community Dy notes how the Ateneo lot more just need self help—geared towards mental health autism and neurodevelopmental mental health training for local community has helped her informal interventions. That's care. Beyond disasters, the disorders in the country.

government units through research pursuits thrive in so what we're trying to do in the program has been rolled out in partnerships nurtured with many ways. "We are able to country— trying to introduce various communities, and has

Her work, in collaboration the Philippine Department do interdisciplinary work not

evidence-based interventions been adapted for community-with UC Davis MIND Institute of Health, the World Health just within the doctors in the that are culturally appropriate to based drug rehabilitation and
Mission and impact-driven:
founding director Randi Organization, Autism Society Ateneo School of Medicine the Filipino people," Hechanova transformed to online-based Hagerman, focused specifically of the Philippines, as well and Public Health (ASMPH), explains.
programs launched during on Fragile X syndrome, and its as different universities and but even in collaboration with the onset of the COVID-19 presence, presentations, and professionals in Davao and faculty members from, let’s Her research began in the pandemic.

Ateneo
prevalence in the Philippine Iloilo. Some of these efforts say Loyola Schools or Ateneo aftermath of Super Typhoon population. Fragile X syndrome have been made possible by Professional Schools and even Haiyan in 2013, as its effects Hechanova is grateful for being
t the
is a genetic disorder which the Ateneo de Manila University beyond.” She then explains that left many affected citizens surrounded by a generous
ork a
usually causes social and Research Council’s internal

“we are able to collaborate with distressed, and revealed a community, inspired by the
W
behavioral challenges in those research funding.
local government units and greater need for adequate Atenean value of “persons-who were diagnosed with it. It is other organizations because of mental health care systems for-and-with-others.” This R
eative
also known to cause intellectual The field of autism is a sector Ateneo university’s resources as and interventions. She then environment has motivated her
ese
disability and is known to have a that needs a lot of support. well. They are willing to partner led a team that developed to continue the work she does

ar

higher prevalence in individuals

There are still many gaps both with us and collaborate with us.”

the Katatagan or resiliency for communities.

ch and Cr

with autism.

in the clinical setting and in framework.

ch and Crar

primary care that leave the

For more information on

”Research is a form of service.

“It provided an opportunity to sector vulnerable. One of the ASMPH’s research related to “A lot of people think that

And I think that is something

Rese

assess or provide assessments goals of Dy’s research is to

neuro-developmental disorders,

resiliency is personality—it’s innate. that researchers ought to aspire
eative

for families with children with bridge those gaps.

visit acri.ph/research/neuro-

But it's actually a skill. It can be for; that the research that we do autism. And at the same time, developmental-disorders. The developed. So we identified six doesn't just end in publications

W

looking at different genetic

"There are so many

Ateneo Center for Research and skills: Knowing your strengths, or journals; it is actually lived,"

ork a

causes for autism… we were international guidelines and

Innovation (ACRI) is the research managing your physical reactions she concludes.

able to provide free of charge recommendations. They don't unit of the Ateneo School of to stress, managing your thoughts

t the

assessment for those families all apply to us, or we aren’t

Medicine and Public Health. To and your feelings, managing

Access the Katatagan online

Ateneo

who accepted the invitation to able to apply them because we know more about their work, your behaviors— your lifestyle—course at selfhelp.cbdr.org.ph/participate in our research work don’t have the resources that visit acri.ph .

and then we talk about problem courses/free-courses/katatagan.

Mission and impact-driven:

as well,” Dy points out.

they entail. And we’re hoping solving,” Hechanova says.

11

Understanding each other's language across the political divide

BRIDGING CULTURAL DIVIDES

CRISTINA MONTIEL's interest very, very important, maybe even in political psychology began central to a society," she says.

with her work as an activist

Writing childrens' books during the Martial Law era

Her research has analyzed in the 1970s and 1980s. This discourse related to the People for a more inclusive society tumultuous time left her

Power Revolution of 1986, the

with many questions about

Duterte administration's push the personal and collective for federalism, leadership and

GLENDA ORIS, who teaches

Her most recent book, Ako ay concerns. Oris thus points out mind in relation to political

the COVID-19 pandemic, and in the Kagawaran ng Filipino

May Kiki (I Have a Vagina) is a that “children’s literature is both engagement. Now Professor the 2022 Philippine presidential (Department of Filipino), is brave intervention in children’s research and creative work.” All

Emeritus, she has been with the elections.

known for her work in the literature. It promotes proper the more, she believes in their

Ateneo De Manila’s Department

area of children’s literature, hygiene and naming of the promise for lasting change.

of Psychology for the last

Given the many lines that divide specifically picture books and reproductive parts, as well

45 years. A world-renowned society, Montiel's work seeks historical fiction for young as the prevention of sexual

"They have the greatest scholar, Montiel was elected to strengthen democracy by adults. Oris has won acclaim for abuse. Recommended by the potential to correct systems that Academician by her peers providing tools that facilitate her books from the Philippines'

Child Protection Network as have gone wrong, to lay down to the National Academy of listening and relating to those top literature prizes such as the a resource for pediatricians, foundations of a more inclusive,

Science and Technology in with differing views in their own

Palanca Awards and the National the book also contains tips diverse, equitable system in our

Mission and impact-driven:

2021. In 2010, the American language.

Children’s Book Awards.

for parents on caring and society,” Oris says.

Psychological Association’s protecting their children’s

Ateneo

Peace Psychology Division

It is this kind of research that

“At the beginning I didn’t know reproductive health, as well as Ateneo, which Oris describes honored her with the Ralph Ateneo wishes to foster, through exactly what I wanted to write contact information of agencies as a “fertile” ground for the

t the

White Lifetime Achievement mentorship and collaboration about. I just wanted to write that address cases of sexual arts, has fostered a vibrant

ork a

Award.

with different departments and about children because a lot abuse. Ako ay May Kiki has and inclusive community that

W

generations of researchers.

of the issues in the world could been translated to Italian as Ho serves as a haven for artists from

Her latest work draws on

“I love working with young have been and still could be una vagina, and was launched diverse backgrounds to explore

eative

computational social science to faculty members and graduate prevented if we focused more in 2022 by the Philippine and experiment fearlessly with

R

understand the deep societal students because they are not on the formation of children,”

Consulate in Milan.

the workings of their creative

ese

divides that continue to linger boxed in," she discloses.

Oris explains.

imagination. Oris hopes that

ar

since her activist days. By

"It is important to come up the university can continue

ch and Cr

ch and Crar

analyzing discourse on social

Amid her accomplishments

Oris is convinced that her with creative works that speak expanding its support for media, Montiel has been able to and contributions to political research is consistent with her directly and easily to children, creative interventions.

ese R

unpack the contested meanings psychology, Montiel is not done advocacies in children's rights works that they can relate

e

which fuel political and cultural yet, as she hopes to collaborate and promotion of cultural to, that teach them about

“What I wish for is for the

ative

conflict in Philippine society and with fellow researchers from the heritage. For instance, her themselves, protect themselves,” university to widen its W abroad.

Global South, and to continue book Looking Out For Heroes

Oris insists.

perspective and be creative

ork a

working with young researchers promotes public art and the when it comes to addressing “Culture for me is shared and students.

sense of rootedness, while the Producing children’s literature concerns in the Philippines.”

t the meaning. And the division

Ayun O! look-and-find picture requires a lot of work—from comes when groups have

To read more of Montiel's work, book series seeks to preserve considering age-appropriate

Get in touch with Oris at goris@

Ateneo

different meanings of an event visit works.bepress.com/cristinaregional languages.

language and illustrations, as ateneo.edu .

Mission and impact-driven:

or episode, or a reality that's montiel .

well as specific developmental

Connect with us

Acknowledgments

Ateneo de Manila University

Vice President for Higher Education Katipunan Avenue, Loyola Heights

Office of University Development and Alumni Affairs 1108 Quezon City

University Marketing and Communications Office Philippines

EDITOR

WEBSITE

Robbin Dagle

www.ateneo.edu/research

WRITERS

ARCHIUM (INSTITUTIONAL REPOSITORY) Robbin Dagle

archium.ateneo.edu

Miguel Arroyo

Royce Baes

EMAIL

Ateneo

oadrcw.ls@ateneo.edu

LAY-OUT ARTIST

Mission and impact-driven:

info@ateneo.edu

Krizzia Mei Esperanza

t the

PHONE

PHOTOS

ork aW

+63 2 8426 6001 local 5046

Joanne Cesario

Brian Sulipan

ative e

Aaron Vicencio/UMCO

Eos Trinidad

Glenda Oris

Rese

ch and Cr

ar

ar

Produced by the Office of the Associate Dean for Research and Creative Work (2022-2023) ch and Cr

ese

Jayeel Cornelio, Pia-Louise Valencia, Djoanna Andres, Ramil Balubal, Royce Baes, Robbin Dagle R

eative

Work a

t the

Ateneo

Mission and impact-driven:

ateneo.edu/research

archium.ateneo.edu